

Responsorial Psalm

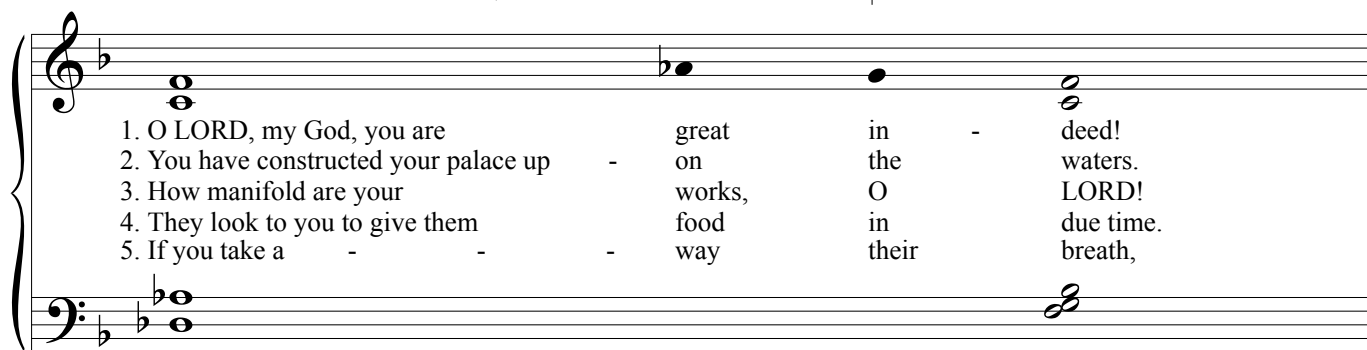

The Baptism of the Lord (C) (option 2)

Psalm 104: 1B-2, 3-4, 24-25, 27-28, 29-30

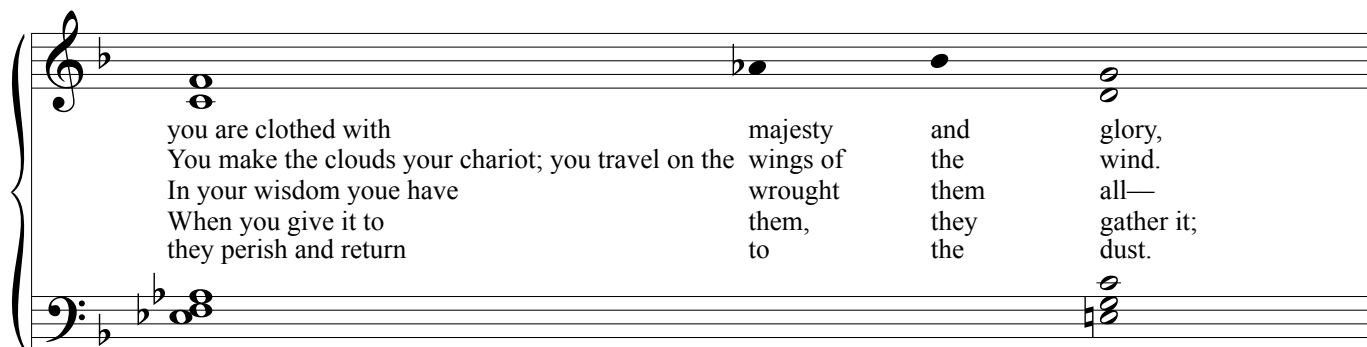

Michael Andrew Cooney

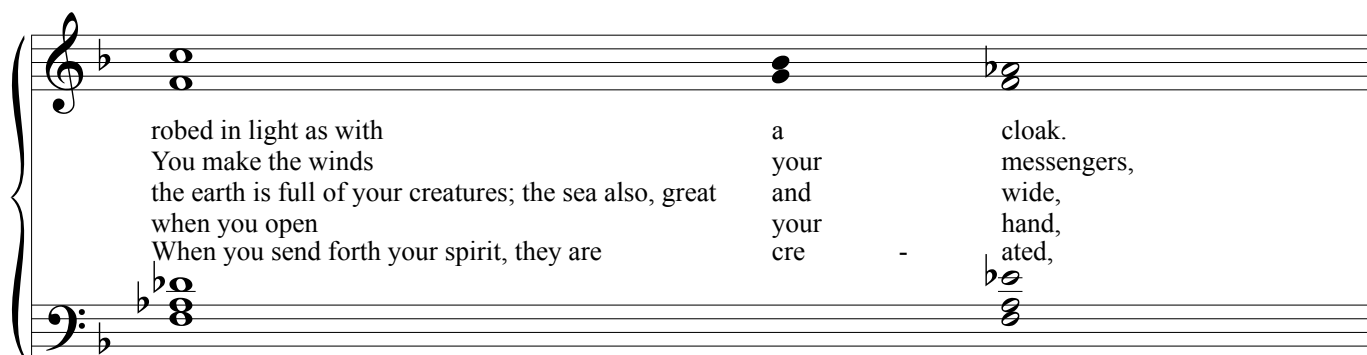

O Bless the Lord, my soul.

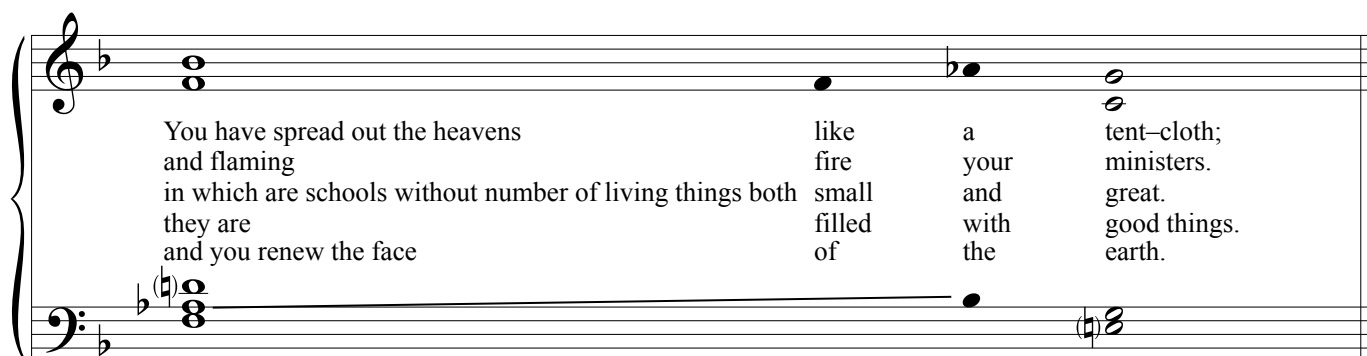

1. O LORD, my God, you are great in deed!
2. You have constructed your palace up on the waters.
3. How manifold are your works, O LORD!
4. They look to you to give them food in due time.
5. If you take away their breath,

you are clothed with majesty and glory,
You make the clouds your chariot; you travel on the wings of the wind.
In your wisdom you have wrought them all—
When you give it to them, they gather it;
they perish and return to the dust.

robed in light as with a cloak.
You make the winds your messengers,
the earth is full of your creatures; the sea also, great and wide,
when you open your hand,
When you send forth your spirit, they are created,

You have spread out the heavens like a tent-cloth;
and flaming fire your ministers.
in which are schools without number of living things both small and great.
they are filled with good things.
and you renew the face of the earth.
